

The Promised Land

Music: Kevin G. Pace

Text: Mark R. Fotheringham

With conviction ♩=80

1. There is a land, a pro - mised land For the right - eous there to
 2. For God would keep them in His hand And as long as they would
 3. But should they e'er for - get His Word And the proph - ets kill or 4. A re - cord they would leave be - hind, All their joys and sins con -
 5. This pro - mised land is ours to - day For the right - eous here to gath - er By cov - e - nant their God to serve And the mind Him, They would pros - per by their toil and heed To the slan - der, To the arm of flesh they would be left And to fess - ing To let the world know of their lives, Both the gath - er, By cov - e - nant our God to serve And the storms of life to weath - er. They came a - cross the proph - ets sent to guide them. The land would bring forth e - vils they'd en - gen - der. A land of free - dom cur - ses and their bless - ings. And show that on this storms of life to weath - er. For God will keep us o - ceans wide As the sea would toss and turn them, Un - of its strength If their God they would re - mem - ber, The they would build, Neith - er king nor prince to rule them. Thus prom - ised land The Lord Je - sus came to teach us, An - in His hand As we pray and seek His wis - dom. We'll til they land - ed safe and sound On the spir - it warm - ing heart and mind Like the they could ei - ther choose the right Or could oth - er test - a - ment of Christ, That He pros - per on this pro - mised land And in land where God could form them. burn - - - ing of an em - ber. let the dev - il fool them.

4

7

10

13

15

lives and years to reach us.
His e - ter - nal King - dom.